1951 —

Robert Owens was born on February 2: 1951: In Little Rock: Arkansas: Robert Owens' mother was born in Homer: Arkansas: Robert Owens' father was born in Little Rock: Arkansas: Now: Robert Owens earns his living risking his time in waiting for passerbys to invest money in his life as he sits near the front entrance of the Bank Of America on Solano Avenue in Albany: California: USA: When I first saw him there I told him I thought he was very intelligent to sit and wait for money near a bank entrance: Robert Owens replied: Of course: That's where the money is sucked: The Bank Of America has recently posted a Security Guard near the entrance to the bank so Robert Owens has moved the legal distance away from the front entrance: I always give Robert Owens one dollar on my way to the bank each month: And I recommend him to all I know as a profoundly worthy investment in our mutual fund: Love of humanity: Below is Robert Owens' Business Card: Since he gave me this card I have shown it to everyone I know as I ask them which they believe to be the more solid investment: Supplying this vital devotee of innovative risk capitalism with one dollar: Or incorporating a piece of dead lettuce with a little piece of dead meat and a little dead radish and a little piece of dead cilantro and a little piece of dead seared fish and one dead peppercorn but no salt on it drizzled with zero rouxed slim gist of dead grape juice for sixty dollars:

And now I will say farewell to you: And I will sing of another happily located warmth charmed friendly innovative entrepreneur always ready to take a risk in order to take a profit in the golden state where body and soul are one too:
