

My career ( For me was a dead end,
I was sexual love was choice challenged.
Of course I had difficult.) a lot of action. I liked

Mike but he had no arms on stage. Then came Kit. He had no arms and legs but he came in a box with arms and legs. Then came Wayne. He came with a slow loss of interest. Rose came with a naive blush like a May snow slushed bush. Neil came with no legs beneath his knees. I could not square Peg with my whole life. Art came with no arms and no legs on the wall. Cliff came with a seagull on his head. Firestone was always tired. Belle came with a clang in her vaulting. Doug came with a spade in his hole. Warren came with a rabbit in his hole. Jack came with a car on his head. Bob came with no arms or legs in his pool. Matt came with no arms or legs on the porch. Russell came with no arms or legs in a pile of leaves. Boe ing came in a roar with a hanger. Eileen came with one leg. Her partner Irene was a Japanese who came with one leg. Bill came with no arms or legs in a mailbox. Curt and Rod came with no arms or legs on the window. Skip came without arms and legs water skiing. Fay came no hands for sprite. Phil came with no arms and no legs in a hole. Honey came six finger sticky in a tacky melt. Jasmine came in a tangle of fruity odor. Phillips came like a cross screwdriver. Angel's idea of love was way over her head. John came with hookers. Kirk came in a valed hush. Emerald was green and came too hard. Dirk came too sheathed. Grant came with strings attached. Tony came extravagantly rich. Bishop came with too much authority. Abbott came without authority. Graham came flat as a cracker. Allen came with a wrench. Eddie came in swirls. Ludwig came fingering his peruke. Les always waited for the sunrise to come. Gene came in helixes. Frank came just as plain as day. Pierce always came right to the point. Pearl came in a hard shell. I could get but fraction satisfaction. I could get but fraction sexual action. My vague organ was in tra ction. I had to make a retraction. My life was a fraction. I twisted and turned. I burned. I chumed. I tried steroids and I tried estrogens. Rainbow rockets, I tried in cocaine sockets. I tried silicones and I tried fat suction and skeletal augmentation. I tried ass reduction. My manager, my producer, my label, my band, my bodyguard, my personal trainer, and my driver said I should try to reach a level of universal attraction. And I found the light. I gave up my dirty kaleidoscopic bi lifestyle and became an appropriately functioning all world total family dedicated well rounded eunuched hermaphrodite.
